

*The Sun Times
Owen Sound, ON Feb. 1, 1975*

EXHIBIT OPENS — Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau and his wife Margaret look at a painting at the opening of a National Gallery display of Canadian paintings of the 1930s which opened in Ottawa this week. Some of the guests wore straw boaters and feather boas when Mr. Trudeau declared the exhibit officially open. The 1930s dress was suggested by the gallery's volunteer support association. The exhibition will later go on a national tour.

CP photo  